THE PRESS.

BY ALBERT LEIGHTON.

We twine no Victor's wreath to-day;
We hail with shouts no new-crowned king;
The song of triumph which we sing
Inspires a nobler zeal than they!

The Press! whose banner wears no stain
Of Blood-told conquest from the field;
Lo! Peace is blazoned on its shield,
And in its conflicts none are slain.

Its power can stamp the Patriot's worth;
Its mandate seal the Coward's doom,
Its bolts divide Oppression's gloom
And shake the proudest throne on earth.

When Justice sleeps, or duty swerves,
Or traitors act their living part;
A voice bursts from its mighty heart,
And thrills along its iron nerves:

Till distant Nations pause to hear;
Till vale and glen and mountain hight
Repeat the cry for Truth and right,
And guilt and wrong shrink back with fear.

The Press! whose vantage ground is mind;
Language its sceptre of control;
Its chariot wheels are thoughts that roll
And leave a track of light behind.

Long may it live to bless the world,
A priceless heritage to man,
A champion ever in the van,
With Freedom's Banner wide unfurled.

MISCELLANY.

The Social Pyramid.

The structure of human society has been compared to a pyramid, and the comparison is not an inapt one. But it seems to us that a strange and unjust use of the building materials may be laid to the charge of the builders. Let us see:

Labor, whether of brain or muscle, has always been pronounced, by the wise, not only honorable, but noble. And industry has always been held forth, to the admiration of the young, as the most praiseworthy of human traits, while idleness has been condemned as dishonorable. In this country, at any rate, this is the popular verdict, as pronounced by the acknowledged organs of public opinion—the pulpit and the press.

Now, if this be so, where should we expect to find the workers placed in the structure of the social pyramid? Surely at the apex. And the non-producers we should expect to find at the base, by all means. So Justice would arrange the materials. But where has Injustice, as the architectural servitor of the tyrant, Fashion, really placed them? Why, the latter are on the top, and the former at the bottom! And, thus reversed from their rightful position, the laborers are being crushed into the very earth by the superincumbent mass of idlers end drones heaped upon them.

When Right, and not Might, comes to rule in the construction of society, Labor will take its proper place, as the crowning glory of the whole.

A MISDEAL IN LOVE.—The Keokuk (Iowa) Gate City, relates the following:

"Ed. H. paid his addresses to Rosa, the daughter of Dr. B., of this city, but his suit was not favored by her parents, and she was driven to make clandestine appointments with her darling Ed. One of these eventuated funnily enough. Ed. was to come to the house and wait outside till the lights were turned off, and then she would let him in. The evening came, and Rosa thought her parents would never retire. But after a while the Doctor sought his nightcap, and Rosa slipped off into the back parlor and sat down in the dark. Her mother, thinking all others had gone to bed, lighted a lamp, turned off the gas, and went up stairs to bed.—But while she was standing in the hall, at the head of the stairs, she heard a gentle rap on the door. Fearing that the wind would blow out her only light, she thoughtlessly sat it down in the hall and descended to the door by its uncertain light. As she threw open the door in rushed Ed., and seizing her in his arms began such a seige of kissing as prevented her from crying out for aid. Poor Ed., did not discover his error until he had called her his darling about ninety times, and received on his face a blow in exchange for each kiss. But hearing himself called an impertinent villain, he incontinently fled the house, as greatly chagrined as Mrs. B. was angry. Whether his devotion or persistency won the mother to his favor, is not stated, but Ed. and Rosa were shortly married, with the full consent of the parents. It proved with Ed.'s love-making as it often does in cards—a misdeal changes the luck.

THE WHOLE ANIMAL.—A wagoner lately passed through a village in Georgia, and on being asked "where he was from?" gave the following answer:

"I am from Cow-corn Hill at Oxfeed ford of Yearling branch, which runs through Calf meadow, and empties into Heifer prong of Steer Creek, near Bullsborough, in Coweta county. My name is Stockton—was born on Elk river—brought up in Cattlebury, Kentucky; and I can yoke and break a steer come a bull, or chase a buffa[illegible]

Depositing in the Name of the Lord.

When the Mormons started for Utah, some years ago, B——, now Col. B——, accompanied them, and as the Mormons had the greatest confidence in the Colonel, and he was a man of very prepossessing appearance, large, portly, dignified, and it is said, "could talk the hind sights off a gross of rifles against time," they deposited all their funds with him. The amount was over sixty thousand dollars, and the deposits were made by each Mormon "in the name of the Lord." After they had reached their destination, and some time had elapsed, they wanted some money to use in making improvements, &c., and went to the Colonel, when for a day or two, the following conversation frequently occurred:

Scene—Colonel's house with the little office in the basement. Enter Mormon.

Mormon—Good morning, Col. How's money matter's?

Colonel—Ah! money, eh? Oh! all right, sir, always right.

Mormon—Well, Colonel, I should like a few hundred of that I deposited with you.

Colonel—All right, sir. What name was it deposited to the credit of?

Mormon—It was deposited in the name of the Lord.

Colonel—A good name, sir—an excellent name. Have you got the papers?

Mormon—(aghast)—What papers?

Colonel—Why, a check, or draft, of course.

Mormon (astonished)—Check!—draft!

Colonel—Yes; check!—draft! Didn't you say your money was deposited in the name of the Lord.

Mormon (his eyes opening)—Y-e-e-s!

Colonel—Well, bring me his check or draft. I will cash it for any amount. A good bankable name, sir.

The Mormons finally discovered the "pint" of the joke, and endeavored to make the Colonel disgorge; but in vain. The Colonel held on to the funds, and would not pay unless a check of the individual in whose name they were deposited be given. The Colonel went across the plains and mountains to California—bought with his "deposits" seven or eight leagues of land before it began to be valuable, and is now one of the richest millionaires on the Pacific. Since that occasion the Mormons have deposited in a different manner, and have kept their eyes open for dignified Colonels who hang on the "ducats" in the name of the Lord.—Eastern Exchange.

Cuffy's Matrimonial Experience.

"Now den, Mister Flufly, Ise gwine to tell you 'bout dis scrape. Fustly, I axed Becky Mariar Samanetha Jane ef she'd becum bones of my flesh, an' flesh of my bones. Arter dreckly she sed yeth. So we went up to de parsnip's (parson's) house, an' I tole de parsnip dat I wanted him to tie de kinnuberous knot. Den de parsnip tole us to stan' up afore we'd sot down. So we stood up, an' den he ses to me, 'Will you take dis woman for your lawful wedded wife; fur better or wuss?' I tole him I guessed I'd 'sidder 'bout dat. At last I ses, 'I guess I'll go it.' Den he axed Becky Maria Samanetha Jane ef she'd take me fur better or fur wuss?—She ses, 'Yes, sir-ree, Bob!' So I guv de parsnip a half a dollah, an' start'd home wid my bride on my arm."

"So, then, you two were made one."

"By golly! ef you'd come past de house sometimes you'd fink dere was 'about a tousand of us."

"Don't you live happy?"

"No; we have a dozen squirrels ebry day."

"No, no, Cuff; you mean that you have quarrels—combats."

"No, I neber come back; wen she knocks me down, I lays dar. Well, I tuck her back to the parsnip an' got married ober agin."

"Well, I suppose you got married right at last."

"No, sir-ree! wuss dan eber; 'stead of makin' us one he made us ten!"

"How could he do that?"

"Easy nuff! he made her one an' I was nuffin'; so one an' naught makes ten, don't it? Mister Fluffy, len' us a half dime, won't you?"

[Exit Fluffy in haste.]

KILLED HIS MAN.—You have doubtless heard of Dr. Thompson, the waggish proprietor of the Atlanta Hotel, in Atlanta, Ga. Well, once upon a time, two gentlemen (the one decidedly under the influence of a spritual presence, and the other approximating the same condition) stopped at the doctor's hotel. In consequence of some extraordinary manifestations on the part of the "tightest" gent, he soon found himself "nigh into a muss" with the Doctor. His friend, however, carried him off before matters reached a crisis. After stowing him away, the friend returned, and accosting the proprietor, said very emphatically.

"Sir, you have been treading on dangerous ground, sir; that man is not to be tampered with, sir; do you know, sir, that he has killed his man, sir?"

"Killed his man!" says Thomson, with a voice like a thunder clap, and a most intense expression of contempt upon his phiz: "By Jove" sir, let me inform you that I have practiced medicine for twenty years, and that you mustn't attempt to frighten me with a chap that has only killed his man. Bah! sir, it won't begin to do."

The fellow "collapsed," and forthwith settled his bill.—Porter's Spirit of the Times.

Yankee Homespun.

"When I lived in Maine," said Uncle Ezra, "I helped to break up a new piece of ground; we got the wood off in the winter, and early in the spring we begun plowing on't. It was so consarned rocky that we had to get forty yoke of oxen to one plow, we did faith, and I held that plow more'n a week—I thought I should die. It e'enamost killed me, I vow.—Why, one day, I was holdin' and the plow hit a stump which measured just nine feet and a half through it—hard and sound white oak. The plow split it, and I was going straight through the stump, when I happened to think it might snap together again; so I threw my feet out and had no sooner done so than it snapped together again, taking a smart hold of the seat of my pantaloons. Of course I was tight, but I held on to the plow-handles, and though the teamsters did all they could, that team of eighty oxen couldn't tear my pantaloons, nor cause me to let go my grip. At last, though, after letting the cattle breathe, they gave another strong pull altogether, and the old stump came out about the quickest. It had monstrous long roots, too, let me tell you. My wife made the cloth for them pantaloons, and I hain't worn any other kind since."

The only reply to this was, "I should have thought it would have come hard upon your suspenders?"

"Powerful hard!"

A gentleman was dining with a friend, when a most dreadful storm arose. The host insisted upon his guest's acceptance of a lodging for the night. The guest complied, but in a few minutes was missed from the parlor. In half an hour he reappeared, drenched with rain. Where have you been? asked the host, viewing the singular object, which looked like a dog about the paws, and a weeping willow about the head. I, said he, quietly shaking off the water—I have been at home to tell my wife that, as it was such a bad night, I should not return.

A WITTY lawyer once asked a boarding house keep the following question:

"Mr. ——, if a man gives you five hundred dollars to keep for him, and dies, what do you do? Do you pray for him?"

"No, sir," replied Mr. ——, "pray for another just like him."

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1857.

TO OUR PATRONS.

The Democrat of last week, in an article referring to its removal to Hornitas, takes occasion to grumble at our County officials for giving the County Printing to the "GAZETTE," but admits, with a show of candor, that while the Know Nothings are in power, we are justly entitled to their patronage, as the organ of their political principles.

Our neighbor of the Democrat certainly has our sympathy for the misfortunes which have led to the removal of that paper from our County seat, and we deeply deplore that our County (rich as it is in undeveloped wealth) is not now—never has been—and is not likely for some time to come, to be capable of supporting more than one paper decently. Such is the fact, and we cannot disguise it if we would. With regard to which of the two is best deserving of patronage, we abide the decision of a discriminating public—at the same time we deny that we are, or ever have been the organ of the Know Nothing, or any other political party. It is true that during the Presidential campaign of last fall, we raised the banner of Fillmore and Donelson, and lent our hearty support to these and other nominees of the American Party, but in the outset we stated to the public that we did this not as the organ of any party, clique, or faction, but from personal preference, and from a thorough conviction that we were lending our support to a sound, national, conservative man, above all the sectional issues and isms of the day. We acted conscientiously, and although our candidate was defeated, we have yet to learn that, in consideration of the then sectional feeling existing, we did not act as becomes a Union-loving man. Our columns were then open to communications from men of all shades of political faith—they are so now, and ever have been. For the patronage we have received we are duly grateful, but accept it as a boon at the hands of our friends, and not as payment from any political party, for services rendered. So much for our politics.

In relation to the interests of our County—if we know ourselves intimately, those interests are ours, and in common with the Democrat, as with a majority of our citizens, we shall use our best endeavors for their advancement. We shall endeavor, as we have always done, to place before the public reliable statistics of the mining operations going on in this vicinity, and use all fair means to forward the construction of this much needed work—a Water Ditch. At the same time disclaiming any intention of appropriating anybody's thunder but our own; and particularly avoiding any of that peculiar kind which was circulated in "pamphlet form" last year. We would add in conclusion, that so far as our future course is concerned, it will be like our past, guided by the motto which stands at the head of our columns—"INDEPENDENT IN ALL THINGS—NEUTRAL IN NOTHING."

LEE & BENNETT'S CIRCUS.

This equestrian Troupe arrived in Mariposa on Monday, and performed on Monday and Tuesday evenings before a numerous audience. The first evening there were near a thousand people collected to see the show, proving conclusively that this portion of the County is still alive and kicking—representations to the contrary, from "lower down," notwithstanding. The exhibition gave general satisfaction, we believe, although (as is usual in such cases) it was not quite up to the programme, as laid down in the bills. The riding of Melville, Rafael and Master Eugene Lee, was excellent. Melville's bare-back act we have never seen excelled in California. Worrell, as "clown," is hard to beat, while Rochette "cut up" his usual amount of monkey shines to the terror of John Chinaman, and other denizens of the "pit."

THE COMET.—The 13th of June has passed, and this erratic body with the fiery visage and tail of magnificet proportions, has failed most signally in scorching the fair face of mother earth, if it ever had any such hostile intentions. We are very much inclined to doubt the predictions of those astronomers of the undevout school, who have foretold this catastrophe. Even in the event of its coming, many have expressed the opinion that our little planet is able to whip it in a fair fight. At any rate it has failed to come to time, and we are still in the ring, and open for a shindy with anything that wears a tail, from a Chinese Mandarin to any other long-tailed Celestial that wants a "muss." Who's afraid? The only Celestial of which we stand in dread, is in the shape of a John Chinaman, with a tail as long as any ordinary Comet, and a bill for "washee shirts John," of proportional length.

THE YO SEMITE VALLEY.

This delightful spot which is just beginning to attract the attention of people from a distance, bids fair to become in time the favorite summer resort of Californians. The beauty and grandeur of the scenery, defying the pen or pencil to depict, must be seen to be appreciated, while the invigorating influence of the cool mountain air, as well as the novelty and excitement of the journey, are in themselves no mean inducement to the denizens of our towns and cities who may wish to seek a few days of relaxation from the routine of business pursuits.

For the information of those of our friends below who intend visiting the Valley this summer, we would simply state some of the advantages of a trip by the "Mariposa trail." This trail, which for a mountain road is a very good one, together with the bridge at the South Fork, was constructed by Messrs. Mann at a great expense, and in order to be remunerated they have established a toll at their bridge at the rate of $1, which, in view of the laudable character of the enterprise, we have no doubt will be cheerfully paid by visitors. Animals can be procured in this place at reasonable rates, and provisions and refreshments put up in suitable packages for transportation. Visitors generally go as far as the crossing of the South Fork the first day, which is distant about 24 miles from Mariposa. At the crossing is a delightful camping ground, known as the Big Meadow, where there is an abundance of grass for animals and other camp conveniences in the shape of wood, water, &c.

About five miles from the Big Meadow, on the divide between the South Fork and Big Creek, a grove of gigantic trees has been recently discovered which will add much to the attractions of this route. They are situated on a flat or plateau, of perhaps from one to two hundred acres in extent, and are of the same species as the Big Trees in Calaveras County. There are probably two hundred trees in this grove which will measure from sixteen to thirty feet in diameter.

From the Big Meadow to the Valley, the distance is about eighteen miles, over a country which people accustomed to the plains, would undoubtedly consider rough. But the first sight of the valley—a magnificent view, repays the visitor for all his inconveniences, which are not of a very serious description, as a person can ride all the route if he chooses. Arrived in the Valley, if the visitors have no person with them sufficiently acquainted with the localities to act "in the capacity of guide," their wants in this respect will be provided for by Messrs. Weaver & Hite, who have established a house in the Valley, where they are prepared to entertain visitors with eatables, drinkables, lodging and general accommodations. From a party lately returned from that place, we learn that the proprietors of the above named Hotel got up a Ball a few evenings since, which, judge-ing from the description given by our informant, must have been the Ball of the season. The Yo Semite Band made their debut on the occasion. The party returned very well pleased with their excursion, as in fact are all who have ever been there.

Those who have not seen this most wonderful of nature's handiwork in California, should certainly visit this place—while to those who have already been there, we have nothing to say, as we know that like others of our acquaintance, they will be sure to repeat the trip.

THE BIG TREES.

A few days since, in company with Mr. A. E. Field, we paid a visit to the lately discovered Grove of Mammoth Trees, for the purpose of ascertaining by personal observation and actual measurement, the extent of the grove and dimensions of some of the largest of these Giants of the Forest, and are enabled to give to our readers the following particulars of the result of our observation:

The Grove is about three-quarters of a mile in length, and nearly half a mile in width—containing over two hundred trees, two thirds of which are over 18 feet in diameter. Out of 22 trees we measured, the smallest was 65 feet in circumference. The largest of the group measures 106 feet in circumference—another 102 feet—and a third 106 feet. Another, which had been blown down, and the top broken off and burned, measures eight feet in diameter, at the broken or small end remaining, which is 192 feet from the base or roots of the tree. On a single acre there are twenty-three trees, the smallest of which measures 18 feet nine inches in diameter. About one mile South of these, there is another group containing about thirty trees.

We apprehend that this discovery will add a new and interesting feature to the trip to the Valley, as the Grove is situated only about five miles from Clark's ranch, on the South Fork, on the direct trail to the Yo Semite. Travelers who are bound for that region will not fail to pay this place a visit. We can assure them that they will be well repaid for their trouble in a sight of this magnificent grove, which is destined to rival in celebrity the famous grove of Calaveras county. The trees are of the same species as those in Calaveras, and in number and magnitude are not inferior.

CLEAR LAKE.—It is estimated the borax claim, at Clear Lake, in Napa county, is worth $2,000,000. In the bed of the lake there is an inexhaustible supply of the article in a chrystalized form. This is said to be the only place where borax is foundin this shape. So says the Republican.

MINERS AND SETTLERS.

Owing to the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State of California, which contrary to all precedent, and to the injury of the real interests of a majority of our working population, places the actual settler at the mercy of the holders of overgrown land claims, the people are moving in all parts of the State, and coming out in open, manly, but firm resistance to this oppressive decision. Resolutions have been passed condemnatory of the course of our Judiciary, and defining the position and objects of the settlers. This movement is not confined to any particular section, but on the contrary, in every portion of the State where these claims come in contact with the rights of those who have settled and made improvements in good faith, people are slowly and steadily acting. The following resolutions were passed at a Meeting of Settlers held in San Francisco, and embody most if not all the grounds of opposition to the doctrine held by our California Courts. They are worthy the perusal of all who have at heart the prosperity of our State.

Resolved, That since it is now conceded by every lawyer of ordinary ability, and by every citizen well informed on the subject, that the doctrines announced by the Supreme Court of this State, in the notorious case of Cohos vs. Raizon, in 3 California Reports, tends to unsettle all titles to lands, and to take away all certainty and security in the rights of property; and since the said decision now stands against the well ascertained doctrines of the common law, of both England and America; and against the written law of Spain and Mexico, and of this State; and against the unanimous decision of the United States Board of Land Commissioners for California; and against a decision of the United States Circuit Court for the district of California; and against a late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, confirming the said decision of Judge McAllister; that, therefore, we call upon the Supreme Court of this State to review its aforesaid decision, and not suffer the same to longer remain a subject of ineffable disgrace to our Courts, of actual advantage to no honest man, but solely an unjust and scandalous protection and encouragement to the Peter Smith land swindlers of San Francisco. That in an especial manner we appeal to the Justices of the Supreme Court to review the aforesaid case fully, and without partiality, and to, decide the law, as they will admit it is their duty to do, and not violate the law as they will plainly see, by an examination of the case, was done by their predecessors in office.

Resolved, That the time has fully arrived when the great subject of the rights of the possessors and improvers to the soil of California, should be equitably and definitely fixed by law; that any further delay upon the subject is fraught with serious danger to the peace and well being of society.

Resolved, That the settler party of California, besides the protection of their individual interests, have still other and higher aims, and that in no other way than through their success can the people at large enjoy prosperity, the State early increase in wealth and power, and in those great blessings which render enviable a well regulated commonwealth.

Resolved, That the universal and unqualified confirmation of land claims over the whole State has brought imminent danger to the very thresholds of all, and there is no course of protection left to three-fourths of the best people of the State, but upon defiance of these claims, which would be evil multiplied a thousand fold, the establishment of such a State policy as shall definitely fix, and unequivocally acknowledge and maintain the possessors, improvers and workers of the soil, in all their just rights. That to secure these ends, the settlers must act politically in the present canvass; and to be effectual such action must be united, vigorous and immediate.

NEW STEAMSHIP COMPANY.

Several weeks since we received a Prospectus of the "California and New York Steamship Company," with a notice which we publish in another column.

One of the principal objects of the Company is to reduce the present enormous rates of passage, so that while the price shall be fixed and uniform, it shall be low enough to be within the means of all.—The plan for the construction of the steamers, embraces all the recent improvements, both in speed and accommodations. There are to be but two departments for the accommodation of passengers, the main Cabin or Saloon, and Second Cabin; the main Cabin to be 350 feet in length, containing 126 state rooms, while the Second Cabin will be arranged on a system of neatness, ventilation and ample room.

The advantages of a line of steamers of this description are too obvious for comment. The monster monopoly which now exists, has done much to sap the life-blood of our growing State. It is time that it should be choked off, and we are glad to see a movement on foot to give us what we have long needed—a "People's Line of Steamers." The capital stock of the Company is contemplated at one million dollars, in 4000 shares at two hundred and fifty dollars each, and as each share is entitled to one second class ticket annually and any person holding three shares to a first class ticket, the enterprise offers inducements to men of small capital superior to any similar investment we are cognizant of. Our citizens should lend it all the aid and assistance in their power.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

By reference to the "Bills of the Day," we learn that the County Convention of the Democrats of Mariposa will be holden in this place on the 9th of July next. As there are not offices enough in the gift of the people to furnish all who aspire to "do the state some service, a portion of the expectants will of course have to go to the left "mit the goats." These will of course be greatly disappointed, but will meet with much sympathy from their Know Nothing friends who are generally considered as "clean out of the ring." Candidates are growing daily more numerous, and their particular claims to the suffrages of the people will be likely to be well canvassed before the election. The support of the "dear People" will be solicited for reasons as numerous and varied as the candidates themselves. Distinguished services—party fidelity—laurels won in the "Halls of Montezuma"—privations endured from long and wearisome electioneering trips over dusty roads—in many instances going two to three hours (!) without tasting lager, will all be alleged as titles to an interest in the public crib.

Of one thing there is a certainty, that though the season has been a remarkably dry one, partially injuring the barley and other grain crops, there never will be a drought severe enough to injure the crop of office-seekers. They thrive in all seasons, and manage to flourish even in famine times.

THE "MUG."—We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Marsh & Miller, in another column.

ARRIVAL OF THE GOLDEN GATE.

TWO WEEKS LATER FROM THE ATLANTIC STATES AND NICARAGUA.

WALKER DEFEATED.

The steamer Golden Gate arrived at San Francisco on the 15th inst., with dates from New York to May 21st. The intelligence from Walker is of a highly important and interesting character. From our San Francisco exchanges we gather the following particulars:

On the 30th of April, Walker's force having become reduced to about 200 fighting men, Commander Davis, of the U. S. sloop of war St. Mary's, addressed a letter to the General informing him that he was well aware of his critical situation, and offering to guarantee the lives and safety of him and his command on condition of his capitulation.

He also offered to take Walker to Panama, and stated that Gen. Mora, the commander of the allies, had consented to suspend hostilities. Walker replied, stating that he considered the propositions of Commander Davis too vague, and demanded a personal interview, which demand Com. Davis declined, but replied by pledging himself for the safety of all persons in Rivas, without exception. Walker finally consented to a suspension of hostilities, and appointed Gen. Henningsen and Col. Waters as commissioners to negotiate with Com. Davis. The next day articles of capitulation were agreed upon, by which Walker, with sixteen staff officers, were allowed to march out with their side arms, pistols, horses and personal baggage, and embark on board the St. Mary's—Com. Davis agreeing to transport them to Panama. The private and non-commissioned officers, citizens and employees of the departments to be surrendered, with their arms, to Com. Davis, he pledging himself to have them safely transported to Panama in separate vessels from the deserters from the ranks, and without being brought in contact with them. Com. D. then took possession of Walker's war schooner the Grenada.

Gen. Canas soon after took possession of Rivas, where he found some sixty of Walker's sick and wounded in a miserable and destitute condition from want of proper attention. Gen. Canas immediately took measures for providing for their wants, supplying them with articles necessary for their comfort, from the Costa Rican stores. Com. Davis addressed a letter of thanks to the Costa Rican General for this act of humanity. On the 2d of May, Lieut. McCorkle of the St. Mary's was ordered to Virgin Bay to take charge of Walker's men, with instructions to proceed to Panama by such route as Gen. Mora should designate, and he was also instructed not to permit any deserters to accompany him.

A correspondent of the Bulletin says that Walker had four days provision on hand at the time of his surrender, viz: three mules, two horses and two bulls, which were used to drag his heavy 9-pounders. The following is a copy of the last general order of the ex-Filibuster:

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
Adjutant General's Office, Rivas, May 1, 1857.

General Order, No. 59.—The Commander in Chief, in Communicating to the army the following agreement, thinks proper to state, that he entered into it on the solemn assurances from Capt. Davis, that Col. Lockridge, with his whole command, had left the San Juan river for the United States.

In parting for the present with the brave comrades who have adhered to our cause, through evil as well as good report, the Commander in Chief desires to return his deep and heartfelt thanks to the officers and soldiers under his command.

Reduced to our present position by the cowardice of some, the incapacity of others, and the treachery of many, the army has yet written a page of American history, which it is impossible to forget or erase. From the future, if not from the present, we may expect just judgment.

WM. WALKER, Commander-in-Chief

ATLANTIC NEWS.

Maj. McCulloch, who was appointed Governor of Utah Territory has declined the appointment. It is stated that a western man had been selected for the post, but through motives of policy the appointment was not made public. It is rumored that government has determined on adopting vigorous measures toward the "Latter Day Saints."

Advices have been received at Washington of the successful exploration of the Isthmus of Darien, for a Ship Canal route, by Dr. Caldwell of the U. S. Frigate Independence.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing from Lecompton, says that nolle prosequis have been entered in the Kansas treason cases, by advice of Secretary Stanton.

The Dallas treaty has not yet been confirmed by Great Britain.

The Burdell murder occupied six days in trial, at the end of which time the Jury returned a verdict of Not Guilty.—Mrs. Cunningham was then discharged from custody, as was also Eckle, on his own recognizance in the sum of $5000.—His trial will not come off before the October term—if then.

NEW ORLEANS, MAY 5th.—The British frigate Tartar arrived with 190 of Col. Lockridge's men in a destitute condition.

STARVATION IN MICHIGAN.—Detroit, May 15.—Advices from some of the secluded claims in Gratiot county state that the inhabitants and the cattle were dying of starvation. A meeting of the citizens has been called to devise means for their relief.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.—The Cheyennes continue bold and defiant. Some traders who have arrived at Fort Laramie, report that the Indians acknowledge the loss of sixty warriors, sent to commit depredations on the California road, in consequence of which they had taken sixteen traders prisoners and dispatched one hundred warriors to the road to avenge their loss.

The grass on the plains is very poor, being fully a month later than usual.

[CORRESPONDENCE.]

MARIPOSA, MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 15TH, 1857.

To HON. S. W. INGE—Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned Citizens of Mariposa County, respectfully beg leave to request you to address a public meeting of the "Miners and Settlers" on Wednesday, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., if consistent with your feelings and not trespassing too seriously upon your professional engagements.

We, in common with a great majority of the people of the County, confident of your ability, would be gratified and flattered to hear your views upon the present location of the Fremont Grant: "Las Mariposas."

Most respectfully,
THOMAS PAYNE,
JOHN A. McDONALD,
LEROY VINING, and others.

MARIPOSA, JUNE 17TH, 1857.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst., inviting me to address a meeting of the "Miners and Settlers" this evening, in reference to the location of the Fremont Grant. I have had frequent occasion, heretofore and elsewhere, of expressing my views upon this subject, and should be gratified to repeat them here in the presence of the people of Mariposa, but my engagements compel me to leave town before the time designated for the meeting. It is well understood by all that the real point in controversy, between Fremont and the people of Mariposa, is the mineral wealth contained in the soil. The original petition of Alvorado, upon which the Grant is based, shows that agricultural and grazing lands, and not minerals, were the subject of the Grant; that class of lands were intended to be confirmed to him by the Supreme Court, and the survey made in July, 1855, is a clear violation of that intention and a fraudulent invasion of the rights of the people who, notwithstanding that survey, are lawfully in possession of the mines and mineral veins. This survey cannot stand the test of investigation, and I hazard little in saying that it will be held fraudulent and void by the Courts. If this be so, the patent which is held up to the world as conclusive evidence of title, is a worthless piece of parchment. But even if the land embraced in the patent were conceded to belong to Fremont, it by no means follows, that he can claim a monopoly of the minerals therein, or can molest others in the enjoyment of what the Supreme Court of our State have repeatedly held to be public property. The precious minerals in the soil of California are the property of the State, and in the exercise of her sovereign power over the same, she has encouraged her citizens to locate upon the mineral lands and to expend their money in the erection of permanent and valuable improvements necessary to the development of this great source of State wealth. Under this encouragement, the most valuable veins and minerals were entered upon and improved and developed, by a large expenditure of private capital, when they were vacant and unoccupied, and before Fremont's floating claim of ten square leagues had become attached to any particular land by an official survey. The pretension is monstrous, that he can thus locate his claim upon the possessions and improvements of others, without compensation to the owners, when these possessions and improvements were established under the express sanction of State legislation and the repeated decisions of our highest judicial tribunal. It has been said that the people are trespassing upon Fremont's Estate; the contrary is true, he is trespassing, or attempting to trespass, upon the mineral locations of the people, who were lawfully in possession before his survey was made, and whose just rights, under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Fremont case, are recognized and held sacred. It has been said that the people have seized upon the private property of Fremont; the contrary of this, also, is true, for he is seeking, fraudulently, to monopolize the mines which are the property of the people.

But, gentlemen, I have not leisure to discuss this subject upon paper, and can say no more than to express my regret that I cannot be present at the meeting this evening. For the kind manner in which you refer to me, please accept my grateful acknowledgements.

Very respectfully,
S. W. INGE.

To Dr. Thomas Payne, John A. McDonald, Leroy Vining, and others.

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1857.

NOTICE.—All political Advertisements—the announcements of Candidates, etc., intended for publication in this paper, must be accompanied by the Cash in order to receive attention.

FOURTH OF JULY.

We are informed that the Committee of Arrangements are actively engaged in making the necessary preparations for the celebration of the birthday of American Independence. An Orator and Reader of the Declaration have been selected for the occasion. In our next issue we shall be able to present our readers with a full programme of the ceremonies of the day.

CAN GOLD EVAPORATE?

This question seems to attract as much attention as in former times did the gravely mooted one of "Who struck Billy Patterson?" or in later times, the important query "Will saltpetre explode?" or still more recently, the interrogatory of vigilance memory, "Where's Ned McGowan?" The agitation of the gold question has been caused by the disappearance at the U. S. Mint in San Francisco, of some $200,000, which it seems that Col. Harasthy is unable to account for, except on the principle that it has been carried up by the draft of the chimney in assaying the dust, and scattered to the four winds of heaven. Chemists seem to disagree in this matter, as do the San Francisco journals, some of which tell marvellous stories of big strikes made on the roofs of buildings in the neighborhood of the Mint. The affair is undergoing an examination, and people will soon hear the result and learn whether the loss has been occasioned by mismanagement, carelessness, or fraud. For ourselves we are inclined to the belief that gold will evaporate, owing probably to some peculiar property in the atmosphere of California. In proof of this, witness the occasional mysterious disappearance of funds from our State Treasury. As to the degree of heat necessary, we are not so well posted, but have been in the habit of believing that these operations are decidedly cool.

SPECIMEN.—We received the other day a specimen of some description of mineral from Mr. Girard George, who sent it to our office accompanied by a note stating he had no name for it. The metal or ore is of a dark, lustrous description, blended with quartz and very heavy. We have met with no one yet who can give us any information with regard to the character or value of the mineral. It is a curiosity at any rate.

QUARTZ SPECIMEN.—Messrs. Goodman & Diltz yesterday left a large specimen of quartz at our office, from their rich vein on Whitlock's. It is literally filled with gold, and with a large amount of the same sort, was taken out of their vein on Wednesday last. They estimate their day's work at not less than a thousand dollars. Not bad to take.

THE GHOST OF THE FORECASTLE.—We received by the last mail, the first number of a paper bearing the above title, and dated July 4, 1849, published at Kirkland, in the neighborhood of Cape Horn. It is neatly printed, and contains a great variety of interesting reading matter, together with the prices current, and miscellaneous advertisements of the business community in that locality—"Jim Read, Editor and Proprietor." We have not placed it upon our exchange list, as we are credibly informed the concern has long since bust up—and it is rumored the editor has lately been seen in this county.

THE WAGON ROAD SURVEY.—The Sacramento Union says that some time during the present week John Kirk, Superintendent, and Frank Denver, disbursing agent will take up their line of march to commence operations on the National Wagon Road. John Kirk will start from Sacramento with nine or ten well loaded wagons, and about sixty men. It is his intention to increase these latter to a hundred, when the work has been got fairly under way, and to break ground somewhere in the vicinity of Honey Lake Valley, extending his observations towards the Atlantic end of the road.

TERRIBLE TIMES IN TUOLUMNE COUNTY.—The San Joaquin Republican publishes a letter from a correspondent, dated Sonora, June 13th, in which the writter says:

This has been a great week in Tuolumne county. On Sunday last, about 5 o'clock in the evening, two brothers, by the name of Jerry and John Wilks, killed a man known as Dutch John, on Moccasin Creek. They left, and on the road met two horsemen and dismounting them, took their horses and left. Deputy Sedwick is after them.

On Monday, a man by the name of Larcum shot himself on Street's Ditch.

This morning a fight took place between two Mexicans, where knives were used. One is likely to die, the other is in jail.

This evening the town is all excitement. Two miners being absent from their home four days, were found buried in their claim, about twenty feet deep.

Later: Two Frenchmen working in Jackass Gulch, had the bank cave in on them, killing one instantly, and breaking the other's arm off above the wrist.

ICE CREAM.—We had the pleasure a few days ago of partaking of a glass of this delicious refreshment, at the Saloon of Messrs. Krafft & Knoble. To those who are fond of it we would recommend them to give him a call, and take it as an antidote for the warm summer days.

WARM WEATHER.—For the past three days the weather has been excessively warm; the thermometer ranging from 100 to 111 degrees.

OREGON NEWS.

The steamer Commodore arrived at San Francisco on the 11th inst., with dates from Oregon to the 6th inst.

The Territorial election which was held on the 1st inst., resulted in the re-election of Gen. Joseph Lane to Congress, by a majority of 1,500 or 2,000.

At last accounts the Indians were comparatively quiet, but are expected to commence hostilities as soon as the salmon season is over.

The U. S. Surveying Steamer Active was daily expected at Puget Sound, with the commission to adjust the boundary line between the United States and the British possessions.

Miss Ann.

Miss Ann Tiquity is said to be the oldest female known in history.—Bost. Star.

Pshaw! she ain't near as old as Ann T. Diluvian.—Syracuse Journal.

Very good, but the most scholastic and literary female is Miss Ann O. Tator and the best natured woman extant is Miss Ann O' Dyne!—Syracuse Journal.

And the worst tempered of the ancient ladies is Miss Ann I Mosity. The balance of the list will be searched out by Aunty Quarian.—Auburn American.

But the female that can furnish the best record of her conduct is Miss Ann A Lize, and the one that is the most regular in her habits is Miss Ann U Al.—Syracuse Courier.

We learn by Telle Graph that there will soon be a general convention of all these ancient ladies, at Aunty Och.—Auburn American.

Get away all you. Miss Ann Void was the earliest feamale on record, for she existed before the creation. The earth was (without form) Ann Void.—Syracuse Journal.

No such thing; Miss Ann T Celent and Miss Ann Terior lived long before any of these Ann T Deluvian or modern Misses you are making so much fuss about.—Buffalo Courier.

Now if you are Ann X Ious too see these Anns use their Ann Kles, let it be Ann Ounced that Ann R Chy will soon be among them.—Mariposa Gazette.

Our thanks are due Mr. CONDON for Express favors.

We are under many obligations to Mr. BRAWLEY, Mail carrier between this place and Sonora, for the prompt delivery of Sonora and Columbia papers.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Notice.—We wish to make a collection of Quartz Specimens from all the different veins worthy of notice in this county, and persons owning such veins can have proper notices of their location, extension and other particulars connected therewith, by sending specimens to this Office, where each one will be properly labelled and its receipt be acknowleged in the "GAZETTE." Also, at the time of the State Fair, at Stockton, we intend to send the collection there for exhibition if practicable; after which, valuable specimens will be returned to contributors, if desired, upon their paying costs of carriage.

☞ DR. L. J. CZAPKAY.—We would direct the especial attention of Invalids to the perusal of Dr. L. J. Czapkay's advertisement; to be found in another column of this paper, to place the services of a learned and experienced Physician within their reach. So much ill has been inflicted on the human family from the pernicious and ignorant practices of empirics, that it seems as if we were fulfilling a bounden duty to make known where judicious relief can be obtained. To those unfortunate enough to suffer from the effects of sexual or private diseases, or their ill-treatment, we cheerfully commend Dr. L. J. Czapkay as a man of rare scientific and medical acquirements—possessing all the requirements, from long experience and acknowledged skill, for the successful practice of his profession. Having made sexual complaints his especial study, like the celebrated Ricord, of Paris, he is enabled to guarantee a speedy and permanent cure in all cases of private or chronic disease, whether the effect of contagion, self abuse, or loss of virility, and in order that patients at a distance may avail themselves of his advice, free consultation by letter is open to them. The knowledge we have of the numerous cures he has effected, some of which were of long standing, leads us to place much faith in Dr. C.'s efficacy, and commend him to the confidence of those in ill-health. may 13-3m

VARIETY.

PARODY.

We find the following parody upon McKay's "Tell me, ye winged winds?" going the rounds:

Tell me, ye winged winds,
That round my pathway roar,
Do ye not know some spot
Where women fret no more?
Some lone and pleasant dell,
Some "holler" in the ground,
Where babies never yell,
And cradles are not found?
The loud wind blew the snow into my face,
And snickered as it answered—"Nary place!"

Tell me, thou misty deep,
Whose billows round me play,
Knowest thou some favored spot,
Some island far away,
Where weary man may find
A place to smoke in peace,
Where crinoline is not,
And hoops are out of place?
The loud waves, sounding a perpetual shout,
Stop for a while and spluttered, "Yeou git out!"

Tell me, my secret soul—
Oh! tell me, Hope and Faith,
Is there no resting place
From women, girls, and death?
Is there no happy spot
Where bachelors are blessed;
Where females never go
And man may dwell in peace?
Faith, Hope and Love, best boons to mortal given,
Waved their bright wings, and answered "Yes, in Heaven!"

PRIMITIVE SIMPLICITY.

A maiden aunt whose locks of snow
Proclaimed her young—some years ago—
Reproved her niece, a damsel gay,
For dressing in the wanton way
By which our modern girls expose
A vast deal more than eyes and nose!
"Why can't you hide what ought to be hid,
And dress modest and plain as your grandmother did?"
"Dear aunt, so I do—as you may perceive,
I dress in the mode of Grandmother—Eve!"

Character of Mankind Shown by the time of Birth.

Translated from the French.

JANUARY.—He who is born in this month will be laborious, and a lover of good wine, but very subject to infidelity; he may too often forget to pay his debts, but he will be complaisant and withal a fine singer. The lady born in this month will be a pretty, prudent house-wife, rather melancholy, but yet good tempered.

FEBRUARY.—The man born in this month will love money much, but the ladies more, he will be stingy at home but prodigal abroad. The lady will be a humane and affectionate wife and tender mother.

MARCH.—The man born in this month will be rather handsome but will die poor. The lady will be a jealous, passionate chatter-box, somewhat given to fighting, and in old age too fond of the bottle.

APRIL.—The man who has the misfortune to be born in this month will be subject to maladies, he will travel to his advantage, and love the ladies to his disadvantage, for he will marry a rich and handsome heiress who will make him what you no doubt all understand. The lady of this month, will be tall and stout, with a little mouth, little feet, little wit, but a great talker and withal a great liar.

MAY.—The man born in this month will be handsome and amiable; he will make his wife happy. The lady will be eqully blessed in every respect.

JUNE.—The man of this month will be of small stature, passionately fond of women and children, but will not be loved in return. The lady will be a giddy personage, fond of coffee; she will never arrive at the age of twenty-one, and will pe a fool at forty five.

JULY.—The man will be fair, he will suffer death for the woman he loves. The female of this month will be passably handsome, with a short nose but fine bust, she will be of a rather sulky temper.

AUGUST.—The man of this month will be courageous and ambitious, but too apt to cheat; he will have several maladies, and two wives. The lady will be amiable and twice married, but her second husband will cause her to regret the first.

SEPTEMBER.—He who is born in this month will be strong, wise and prudent, but too easy with his wife, who will give him great uneasiness. The lady, round faced and fair haired, witty, discreet, and loved by her friends.

OCTOBER.—The man born in this month will have a handsome face, a florid complexion, wicked in his youth, and always inconstant. He will promise one thing and do another, and remain poor. The lady will be pretty, a little coquettish, and sometimes a little too fond of talking; she will have two husbands who will die of grief, she will best know why.

NOVEMBER.—The man will have a fine face and be a gay deceiver. The lady of this month will be large, liberal and full of novelty.

DECEMBER.—The man born in this month will be a great sort of personage, though passionate; he will devote himself to the army and be betrayed by his wife. The lady will be amiable and handsome, with a good voice, and well proportioned body; she will be twice married, remain poor but honest.

STOCKTON
CITY MILLS.

Main St., West end—Established 1850.

THE undersigned confident from their long experience in the Milling business, of their ability to manufacture the best description of FLOUR, would invite the attention of parties wishing to purchase, to the established reputation their brand has acquired in the Southern Mines, and wherever introduced, for its purity and superior quality.

They would take this occasion to inform their friends and the public, that having added to the premises, a Fire proof Brick Store-House, 40x80 feet, capable of storing 600 tons grain—improved and perfected the machinery of the Mill, their increased conveniences enable them to confidently guarantee every sack of Flour branded "STOCKTON CITY MILLS."

To Merchants and Farmers, they would add, that they continue to pay particular attention to grinding all kinds of grain. In conclusion, they would respectfully refer all those unacquainted with the Mills, to the principal Merchants of Stockton, and the Southern Mines. SHERRY & CO.

GRAND MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE.

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the suppression of quackery.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and late Lecturer on diseases of Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children has opened his institute for the cure of all forms of private diseases, such as syphilis, gonorrhœa, nocturnal emissions, and all the consequences of self-abuse. In the first stages of syphilitic or gonorrheal diseases, he guarantees a cure in a few days, without inconvenience to the patient or hindrance to his business. When a patient by neglect or improper treatment, has developed the symptoms of secondary syphilis, such as pushes, or painful swellings of the groins, or ulcers in the throat or nose, which if not checked, destroy the soft parts and cause the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer hideous to behold; or when splotches and pimples break out upon the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to predispose to consumption or constitutional disease, the Doctor guarantees a cure or asks no compensation.

In rheumatism, chronic or acute, in dysentery or diarrhœa, he has safe and effectual remedies. For the treatment of the consequences of self-abuse, such as nocturnal emissions, nervousness, timidity, headache, pains in the back and limbs, with general weakness, loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, and a feeling of weariness of life, with the nervous system so irritable that slight noises shock or startle the patient, making his existence miserable. For the above maladies the Doctor will guarantee a cure or ask no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost them nothing, and may be much to their advantage.

A Tribute to Merited Worth.

☞ A TESTIMONIAL, RICHLY MERITED.—The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by the finer feelings of the heart, are oasis in the life of those who sacrifice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortality. Empiricism fills the columns of our press with fraudulent and fictitious letters; slaving peans to the worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Below we append a letter from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off this mortal coil," who looked forward to his dissolution with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skillful physician has restored him to his former health. Inflicted from his terrible situation, and impelled by gratitude, he makes known his case and counsellor agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its publicity; and it is given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician of whom scores of like cases can be cited:

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czaphay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of self-abuse in youth; injured in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of trifling importance—but shed upon their treatment, during many months, of their treatment. I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicines would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay. Upon examining my case, he prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs; the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropic and evil forebodings; the inability to study, and want of reaction, the right-ful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand.

With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the hands of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer the testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured, by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected. R. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco, Subscribed and sworn before me, this 17th day of April, 1856. (Signed) JOHN MIDDLETON, [L. S.]
Notary Public.

A CARD.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from some cause unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense of competent opinion and thorough medical treatment, and the failure which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of a physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies I yet declined the universities of my life, and soon I carried to look upon those who would render no assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking all of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay, to lay before him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for all his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook the case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my inbebtedness, I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
[L. S.] MEYER YAMOSSEY.

State of California, County of San Francisco.—Subscriged and sworn before me, this 1st day of August, 1856. GILBERT A. GRANT, [L. S.] Notary Public.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

GREAT BLESSING TO MANKIND!—Innocent but potent! Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum, (self-disinfecting agent,) a sure preventive against gonorrhœal and syphilitic diseases, and an unsurpassed remedy for venerial, scrofulous, gangrenous and cancerous ulcers, fœtid discharges from the vagina, uterus and urethra, and all cutaneous eruptions and diseases. As innoculation is a preventive against small-pox, so is Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum a preventive against syphilitic and gonorrhœal diseases. Although harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophilacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient to use, being used as a soap. Price $5. For sale at Dr. Czapkay's Private Medical and Surgical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

All orders must be addressed to L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.

Spermatorrhœa.

OR local weakness, nervous debility, low spirits, lassitude, weakness of the limbs or back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, dizziness, headache, involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face sexual and other infirmities in man, are cured without fail by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon, L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success. All consultations (by letter or otherwise) free. Address L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.
